Upper School Athletics Policy

The interscholastic athletic program of the Buckley School is an important component of the overall school curriculum. Students participate in a program that reflects the school's philosophy of continual growth and achievement, participation, and the development of the individual's greatest potential. Buckley athletes are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in the Buckley Commitment when competing inter-scholastically representing our school.

Throughout the interscholastic athletic program, the goal is to provide fair and equal competition where all participants have a chance for success. Among the values we seek to cultivate are:

- ❑ a sense of teamwork and cooperation
- ❑ an understanding of the need for sacrifice, discipline, dedication and commitment
- ❑ the establishing and achieving of goals
- ❑ self-confidence
- ❑ sportsmanship
- ❑ respect for others and self
- ❑ a feeling of individual, team and school spirit
- ❑ the acquisition of new physical skills
